Fuss Over Tax Notices

Randall County commissioners met Monday in the wake of a furor over sending out notices of a 20 percent increase in county taxes.

"My phone has just been ringing off the hook and people have been raising sand about it," declared County Tax As-essor-Collector Bill Money. The tax assessor-collector says county taxpayers are blaming his office for the tax hike.

"I'm getting a lot of complaints and I didn't have anything to do with it," lamented Money. "Commissioners court set the tax rate. The county clerk sent out the notices. All I did was just to figure it."

Commissioners court set the basis of taxation April 15 at 15 percent of value. It previously had been 12 1/2 percent. The tax rate in Randall County remains at $1.45 per $100 taxable valuation.

Most Randall County taxpayers received notices of the hike in the mail last Friday. This gave rise to more speculation—specifically concerned with the influence of the tax notice timing on the $1,350,000 Canyon school bond election which was held Saturday.

"I'm sure it affected the school bond election some," declared County Clerk Leroy Hutton. "If the bond election had failed, I would have felt guilty but the tax notices were sent out at the only time they could be sent."

"Commissioners court voted the tax raise April 15 and the very next night the school board voted to have a bond election," Hutton went on. "I couldn't get the notices out any earlier and to be legal they had to be gotten out by Friday."

The county clerk explained that commissioners court sits as a board of equalization from 2 o'clock until 5 o'clock next Monday afternoon. He said the law requires that notices of tax raises be given at least 10 days prior to the meeting of the board of equalization.

He said his office moved with all possible speed to prepare and send the notices after commissioners court decided on the raise.

Commissioners Monday were notified that they have until June 13 to protest an application to the Texas Water Quality Board by the city of Canyon for the city to be permitted to pump 1,300,000 gallons of sewage a day into McSpadden Lake just (See FUSS Page 10)

NSF Grant Awarded

A matching grant of $21,300 has been awarded to West Texas State University by the National Science Foundation for X-Ray equipment for undergraduate instruction in the sciences, President James P. Cornette has announced.

The university will match grant funds for a total of $42,600 for the equipment to be housed in the Killgore Research Center for the use of agriculture, geology, chemistry, and physics departments. Project director for the grant is Dr. Franklin W. Daugherty, professor of geology and Kill- (See NSF Page 10)

HHS Graduation Plans Outlined

Dr. Joseph Findley will address graduates of Happy High School at baccalaureate services Sunday in the HHS auditorium.

Dr. Findley, associate professor of education and psychology at West Texas State University, is pastor for the Happy Presbyterian Church. The baccalaureate program will begin at 8 p.m.

Awards night for academic achievements by students will be held Friday at 8 p.m. The commencement exercises for Happy's graduating seniors will be Monday at 8 p.m. with Burl Sims, president of the school board, conferring the diplomas.

Valedictorian Elizabeth Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Payne, and Susan McManigal, salutatorian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morlan McManigal, will address the graduating class. Miss Payne had a four-year average of 91.97 and Miss McManigal's average was 91.58.

JC Fish Rodeo Set Saturday

Fisherman's "takes" will be the order of the day Saturday at the annual Canyon Jaycee sponsored youth fish rodeo.

The rodeo will be held at the Tony Burrus farm, Palo Duro Creek, two miles north of the West Texas State University Maintenance Building. Signs will lead the way from the Maintenance Building, according to Terry Clark, chairman.

The rodeo will get underway at 10 a.m. Youths should furnish their own lines, poles, hooks, etc. Bait will be furnished by the Jaycees. No entry will be charged. All youths are invited to participate.

Youths needing transportation should call 015-3984 before 9 a.m. Saturday. The rodeo fishing will be supervised by members of the Canyon Jaycees and Jaycee-Ettes, however parents are also invited to join the fun.

A concession stand with soft drinks, sandwiches and other treats will be operated by the Canyon Jaycee-Ettes.

Awards will be presented at 4:30 p.m. after prize catches have been measured and weighed. Trophies will be presented in three age divisions for the largest fish caught and the largest string of fish. Divisions will include ages 3-6, 7-10 and 11-14. Trophies will also be given for the largest bass and smallest bass caught, according to Clark.

Amendment Asked For Sewer Permit

The City of Canyon is asking the Texas Water Quality Board in Austin for an amendment to the sewer permit which would allow local authorities to pump an additional one million gallons of waste water daily into McSpadden Lake.

City Commissioners were told Monday that City Manager Paul Davis and Mayor Paul Lindsey would be in Austin June 18 at 9 a.m. for the hearing before the TWQB, agency governing local sewerage plant operations.

The need to amend the permit resulted from the recent (See AMENDMENT Page 10)

Bond Firm To Pay Trip To New York

Canyon Independent School District voters Saturday passed a $1,350,000 bond issue to build a new junior high school and to aircondition Rex Reeves Elementary School.

The vote was 621 for and 506 against—a 115 vote spread. Canyon school board Tuesday night canvassed the election and declared the bond issue approved.

Six members of the school board including J. O. Parker, Jerry LaGrone, Walter Graham, Joe Gill, Bill Davis and Wesley Cox will go to New York this week end for a meeting with bond rating firms.

Also making the trip will be School Supt. Jerry Jacobs; Joe Gidden, chamber of commerce; and W. E. "Bill" Adams, First National Bank.

The group will make an effort to have Canyon School District's rating elevated from BAA to A. This would lower bond interest rates on the upcoming bond issue and school officials say this would save the district something above $80,000.

Fletcher Sims, Jr., appeared before the board and asked whether the trip to New York would be financed from tax funds. He was told that Columbian Securities, firm handling the upcoming bond issue, would pay for the trip.

Sims also asked how the mailing of a letter and brochure by the school system was financed. He was informed that the school board had authorized the mailing.

School Superintendent Jacobs pointed out that board members had endorsed the bond issue and that as elected representatives of the people had the right to inform patrons on what they think to be the best interests of the school.

Lester Smith told the board he is unable to pay his school taxes and offered to give his house to the school district.

Smith said he has received notice that he faces legal action to collect back taxes. He said (See BOND Page 10)

Rassman Speaks At Graduation

Promise of equal opportunity and equal distribution of good things to all was branded as an outright lie Sunday by Emil C. Rassman as he spoke at spring convocation at West Texas State University.

Rassman, a Midland attorney, is president of the board of regents of Texas State Senior Colleges.

More than 3,000 persons packed the WT fieldhouse and spilled out into hallways as Dr. James P. Cornette, WTSU president, conferred degrees on 647 graduates.

"You are not a weak, decadent generation and I urge you to be nobody's man," Rassman admonished the graduates. "Be too proud not to be independent in your thinking."

He said that determination coupled with industry is the real (See RASSMAN Page 10)

Animals Leashed

All dogs or cats in the City of Canyon not confined within a fenced-in area or on a leash will be taken to the animal shelter, said Canyon Police Chief Calvin Costley.

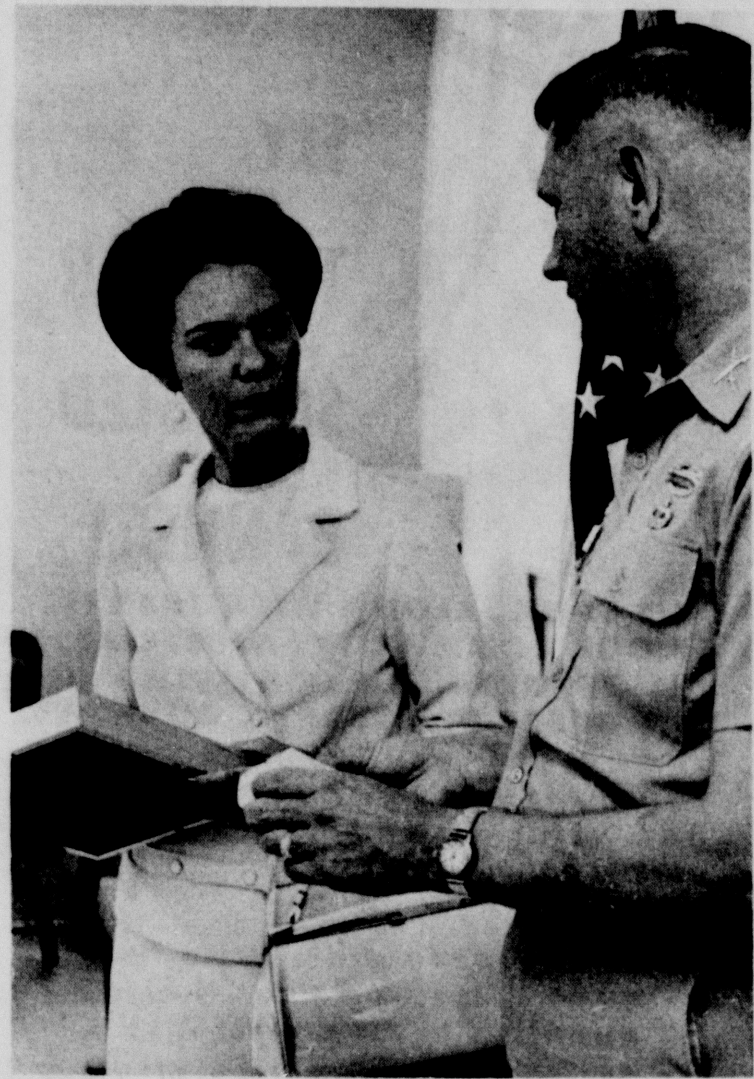

The animals will be released only after the owner has paid a $5 fine, plus board and lodging at the animal shelter, Costley added. Owners may be issued citations even though the animals are not taken to the shelter.

A tightening of regulations, Costley said, was prompted by a recent outbreak of rabid animal cases. There have been six cases of rabid animals reported in the last few weeks he said, adding that two skunks were killed inside the city limits here this week.

Don Piccard, left, well known balloonist, is shown here shaking hands with Herbert Kuhlman in whose field Piccard's balloon made a rough landing Friday afternoon 8 miles southeast of Canyon. Piccard's mother, Dr. Jeannette Piccard, and a cousin, Jacques Piccard, was with Piccard in the balloon which took off from Amarillo a short time earlier as a part of a Helium Centennial observance. Dr. Piccard suffered an ankle fracture in the rough landing in a 20 mile an hour wind. The balloon touched down in a pasture, was bounced along by the wind and jumped a fence into the Kuhlman wheat field.

A BRONZE STAR was presented here last week posthumously to Capt. Jimmy M. Brasher who was killed last year in Vietnam. Receiving the Bronze Star from Lt. Col. Billy R. Smith of the West Texas State University Reserve Officer Training Corp. was Capt. Brasher's wife, Sally.

Award Medal To Captain

Jimmy M. Brasher, US Army captain who was killed last year in Vietnam, was awarded a Bronze Star posthumously here in ceremonies last week.

Accepting the Bronze Star from Lt. Col. Billy R. Smith of the West Texas State University Reserve Officer Training Corp. was Capt. Brasher's wife, Sally.

Capt. Brasher's children, Bradley Bruce and Leslie Lynne, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Brasher of Canyon, were presented lapel buttons which have been given to survivors of soldiers killed in battle since World War II.

Capt. Brasher, a decorated pilot serving with the US Army at Hue, Vietnam, was listed as missing in action last year after his plane disappeared from a radar scope and later was presumed dead.

He was born in Plainview April 9, 1941 and had been a resident of Canyon 22 years. He attended Canyon High School and was a member of the National Honor Society and varsity athletic teams.

A 1963 graduate of WTSU in chemistry, he received an ROTC commission.

Capt. Brasher received training in 1964 at Fort Benning, Ga., and aviation at Fort Rucker, Ala., where he received his pilot's wings.

He received additional training at Fort Carson, Colo. and in Arizona and served five months in Korea prior to an assignment in Vietnam. Capt. Brasher had been in Vietnam seven months at the time of the reports last September.

His wife is the daughter of Mrs. Lee Foster of Canyon. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Clark of Canyon and her grandmother is Mrs. J. H. Brewer.

Other survivors include sisters, Mrs. Wallace Huff and Mrs. Bill Rogers of Amarillo; and brothers, Lynne Williams of Canyon and Gordon Williams of Mineral Wells.

Parole Given Ella Binning

Mrs. Ella Mae Binning, 29, who was sentenced to 16 years in the State Penitentiary for the December 1963 hammer slaying of her five year old son, Marcus Dewayne, has been paroled from the state prison in Huntsville.

Randall County Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen said he was asked in January of 1967 and again three months ago if he would recommend pa-

ELLA MAE BINNING role for Mrs. Binning. At both times he said he would not recommend parole.

The mother of five, who had a sixth child while being held for trial in the Randall County Jail, allegedly killed her son in a fit of anger. She was sentenced to the penitentiary for the 16-year term by a jury composed of three women and nine men.

An autopsy revealed the youngster sustained open wounds on the head, a broken collar bone, broken legs, broken left arm, teeth marks on the body, burns on the legs and arms that apparently were caused by a rope and severe malnutrition.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

"We're gonna raise hell," Rev. Ralph Abernathy told his "poor people marchers" in Washington early this week. But he said it will be done non-violently.

I can't help wondering how he plans to accomplish "raising hell" nonviolently.

I talked to Congressman John J. Rooney (D-NY) Wednesday afternoon about a report that he had in his possession a very derogatory file on Martin Luther King, Jr.

The information on the alleged file came from the April 11, 1968 Congressional Record and was reported to have been carried in a Washington State newspaper.

The report is defamatory. "You have some hot news," Rooney told me on the telephone. "I have never told any other newspaperman this but the report is not true. There is nothing to it. I do not have such a file. I don't know what you will do with it but you have this first."

"I'll print it," I assured the Congressman. "I am looking for the truth."

I chatted with the Congressman a minute. "We wouldn't agree on a lot of things, me being from Brooklyn," he said. "You'd be for the 27 1/2 percent oil depletion allowance and I'm against it."

I assured him that I, too, look upon the allowance with a jaundiced eye.

Rooney said he thinks the "poor people's march" poses no threat to the nation's capitol as long as they behave. I told him I hate to see Congress legislate under duress.

"There isn't any duress," he asserted. "It won't affect me or my colleagues."

I am shocked to learn that an apparent falsehood has found its way into the Congressional Record. Now, more than ever, this country needs the truth. I view King's record and intent with suspicion but I regret to see him unjustly defamed.

Martin Wiggington who was here for a sparsely attended rally of Students for a Democratic Society said he served 12 months on the staff of gubernatorial candidate Don Yarbrough. SDS is, by admission of its own leaders, a radical left group of students.

I noticed that several people linked with SDS have shown up at meetings of a McCarthy for President group here.

As a matter of fact, Bartee Haille, Jr., Southwest regional traveler for SDS, attended a meeting of the McCarthy for President group at the Catholic Newman Center Wednesday of last week.

I have no way of knowing McCarthy's feelings on the matter or whether he accepts support of the so called radical left or not. It looks like he's going to get it anyway.

remembering that Bobby Kennedy was on the staff to Joe McCarthy back in the 1950s. However, I can't think of a reason they would find him unpalatable. He's the original "capitulation kid" who says he would be willing to give his own blood to Viet Cong communists.

Hubert Humphrey, a founder of the ultra-liberal Americans for Democratic Action, is now considered a conservative Democrat.

Ronald Shepard was buried Monday. Ronnie was 24 years old and in love with life when he was cut down by communist bullets in Vietnam fighting for the freedom of mankind.

Ronnie worked for me when he was in school at West Texas State. He was a member of the ROTC unit and proud of it. He was cadet officer in charge of raising the flag on Saturday nights at Buff Stadium.

Old Glory was never unfurled by one who loved her more.

Ronnie loved people. A boy who worked his own way through college, down to the last thought of students who would follow him through the halls of WTSU. He left a part of his estate to the Opportunity Plan in an effort to make getting an education easier for others.

While he was in school here Ronnie didn't protest. He studied.

He didn't clamor for "freedom." He lived in the freest country on the face of the earth and he knew it. He gave his life for it.

West Texas State might well have lowered the flag to half mast to mourn him. He was one of her finest.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Troy:

I read where Mr. Lester A. Smith, an avid critic of the Canyon Independent School System, has made an impassioned plea to the board about not being able to pay his delinquent taxes, throwing his family, home, machinery and himself upon the mercy of the board.

It seems ironic to me that Mr. Smith, an honest man we are all sure since this fact was even confirmed by the school board, was able to conduct a campaign last week in an attempt to defeat a bond issue here. Now, I'm sure Mr. Smith must have financed this campaign alone, since such an honest man would never allow himself to be used by other persons interested in defeating such an issue.

I would also think that Mr. Smith would want to forego the expenses of trips to Austin, to serve as a delegate to a political party convention, since the cost of this trip could surely be applied to the payment of his back taxes.

Now, very few of us enjoy paying taxes, and certainly they are no easier to pay when we see the taxes of one property owner being excused, while he is financially capable of participating in politics as Mr. Smith apparently is.

Thank you,
Mrs. Phil Duncan

Dear Editor,

RESTRAINT seems to be the big word in Washington these days.

RESTRAINT has caused 23,000 killed and 100,000 wounded in Vietnam.

RESTRAINT in law enforcement has given us looting, burning and murder.

Why not substitute victory in place of restraint, and apply it with vigor against communists and criminals?

Very truly yours,
M. H. Hays

Dear Mr. Martin,

Just a brief note to thank you for the wonderful support you have shown to the schools this year, especially the choir department. The publicity has been so important to our choir activities and we never had to worry with The Canyon News. Mrs. Miller has been extra special in reporting our functions and we appreciate it so much.

Thank you again.
Sincerely,
Linda Adams

Dear Editor:

The committee for the creation of the Milton (Buff) and Cathryn Morris Memorial Loan Fund closed its formal campaign last Saturday night with a wonderful dinner and presentation program before approximately 100 donors and Mr. and Mrs. Morris. Dr. Ples Harper presided and Senator Grady Hazlewood was chief speaker. Mikki and George Green sang the invocation and Mr. Harvey Allen of Amarillo, Chairman of the Board of The Opportunity Plan, Inc., paid tribute to Buff and Cathryn and praised the great services the Plan has rendered.

J. A. Hill, as chairman of the fund raising committee, presented to The Opportunity Plan through Mr. Allen, a check for $11,000 and requested that the Morris Memorial Fund be made a division of The Opportunity Plan and administered by Mr. Allen and his 25 member Board of Directors of said Plan. Dr. Hill also introduced a resolution proclaiming Milton Morris the Texas Citizen of the Year which was accepted unanimously. Mrs. Alice Short Smith of McLean, member of the overall Board and the first contributor to the Milton and Cathryn Morris Memorial Fund, was introduced, as was Vernon Harmon of Happy, also a member of the overall board and a major contributor to it and to the Morris Fund, was introduced.

The members of the committee would like for the public to remember that while we have closed the formal campaign for funds for the Morris Memorial the door is still open to contributions to it and will never be closed. And remember these donations are income tax exempt.

In closing I wish to thank all who contributed to this campaign, the members of my committee, and Jack Jones, Clifford Baker, and Joe McCormick without whom I could not have functioned.

Sincerely yours,
Dr. J. A. Hill

But then what does a flower have that a gas light doesn't?
Flowers brighten up your yard. So does a gas light. After you install a gas light, it might be the first time you've seen your flowers at night.

Flowers come in different sizes and shapes. So do gas lights designed to lend distinction to any landscape. Take your pick. If they're taken care of just right, flowers will bloom the whole season. A gas light blooms year 'round, and requires absolutely no care.

Flowers have a wonderful fragrance. You've got us there. A gas light doesn't have an odor at all. But we know you'll overlook that, since a gas light has so many other nice features.

New lower prices on the '68 models are in effect through July 31st. Prices start at $52.70 cash (includes installation and tax) or only $2.00 per month.

The group will meet at the First Methodist Church at 6:30 p.m. to depart for Mrs. Brown's home.

Couple Injured

A Canyon couple is being treated at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo following a two-car accident at the intersection of 10th and Madison St. in Amarillo Monday afternoon.

Everett W. Glenn, 75, and his wife, Mae, 68, are both in satisfactory condition following the collision. Driver of the other automobile, Barry Eugene Weaver, 17, of 1617 Parker, was not injured.

Officers said the Glenn vehicle was eastbound on 10th and the Weaver car was traveling west when the collision occurred at the intersection.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it--and so do its readers.

You say you'd like a few suggestions on how to get more out of your telephone service?

Here are five tips to help make your every "hello" a real good buy:

1. Whenever you're moving to another town within the Bell System, let us arrange for your phone service before you move. If you know the address of your new home, we can make arrangements in advance so you'll have the exact service you want in your new home. We'll also refer calls from your old phone to your new number if you like. Just call the business office and ask about our Easy Move Plan. There's no extra charge.

2. Speaking of moving, we hope you realize that wherever you move in the Bell System, there is no color charge for the phones at your new address if you had color phones at your old address.

3. Ever wonder what to do when you get a wrong number on a Long Distance call? Just hang up, dial "0" for "Operator," and tell her what happened. She'll see that you're not charged for the call.

4. And if you ever lose your dime in an out-of-order pay telephone, just go to a working phone and report it to the Operator. She'll arrange to have your dime mailed to you. Also, if you give her the number of the out-of-order phone, we'll get it fixed right away.

5. Long Distance interstate rates are lower all day Saturday and Sunday, and after 7 p.m. each weekday. You can also save money if you call by number. A station-to-station Long Distance call costs about one-third less than a person-to-person call.

At Southwestern Bell, our goal is to help you get the very best telephone service. We want your every "hello" to be a real good buy.

Methodist Pastor To Lamesa

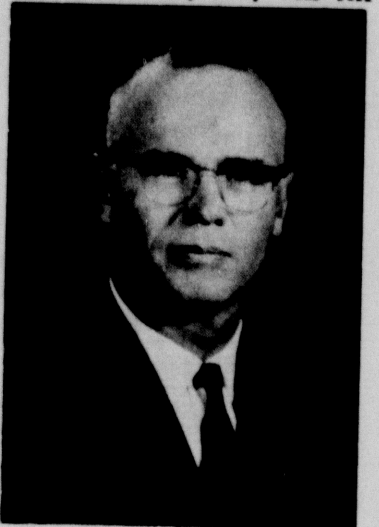

Rev. Newton Starnes has been transferred to Lamesa First Methodist Church. The announcement came this week during the annual Methodist conference.

Rev. Starnes has been pastor of Canyon First Methodist Church since 1960. The eight year span has seen much progress in the church with 765 members having been received, 223 by profession of faith. During that time almost a half million dollars has been contributed to the church.

"I want to dedicate my final sermon Sunday, preceding Memorial Day, to the 70 members of our church who have died since I have been here," said Rev. Starnes.

Rev. Starnes is a member of the Naval Reserve, a veteran of 26 years. He served four years on active duty during World War II and holds four battle stars. He has the rank of lieutenant commander. The Starnes family will move to Lamesa next Thursday. Replacing Rev. Starnes as pastor here will be Rev. Frank Peery of Muleshoe. Rev. Peery, who has been pastor of the Muleshoe church for 7 years, will fill the pulpit here for the first time June 2.

The Starnes family has been an active part of the Canyon community for the past 8 years. Mrs. Starnes is a member of the Womens Society of Christian Service at First Methodist Church, the choir and church school.

A daughter, Mary, is graduating from Canyon High School this week. She is a member of all-state choir and will be in the cast of "TEXAS" this summer. Another daughter, Beth, is an eighth grader in Canyon Junior High School. She is a member of the junior national honor society.

A son, Charles, is a junior at West Texas State University, where he is president of Alpha Chi Honor Society. He is majoring in mathematics and is an officer candidate in the Naval Reserve.

The Starnes family will be honored at 7 p.m. Sunday in Fellowship Hall at the Methodist Church with an ice cream supper.

Church members and other friends have been invited.

Parole Okayed

Texas Gov. John Connally Monday approved a parole for Clarence F. Young, sentenced to life imprisonment in 1956 on a murder conviction by a Randall County jury, according to an Austin source.

Young, who was convicted in March 1956 of the bayonet slaying of Robert Boyd Chapman, was sentenced to the penitentiary on a life sentence.

Both Randall County Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen and L. S. (Slim) Johnston, sheriff, said they had opposed the parole for Young.

The incident was alleged to have occurred at a roadside park one mile south of Canyon where Chapman had been stabbed 14 times.

The governor's approval clears the way for the Board of Pardons and Paroles to work out details of Young's release to California, a process which usually takes two weeks, the Austin source said.

Young has 22 years of credit for time served in prison under the board's system of computing prison time.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 75th DISTRICT
THANK YOU

Your expression of confidence in my representation of our district in the House of Representatives was heartwarming and deeply appreciated. The job is frequently not an easy one and there are times when you wonder if anyone is aware of your efforts. Your votes in the Democratic Primary made the past six years seem very worthwhile.

I will need your support again in the general election in November. If I get it, you can rest assured that I will continue to serve with the same dedication as I have in the past.

And don't forget the runoff election on Saturday, June 1st. While I'm not in the contest, I urge you to express your opinion in these important races. If you're going to be out of town because of the Memorial Day holiday, absentee voting must be done by Tuesday, May 28th.

Canyon City Library will participate in the Texas Summer Reading Club for youth, according to Mrs. Chester A. Pierle, librarian.

The local library will begin registration and participation on June 3. Students may sign for the club at anytime during the summer. The program will conclude in mid-August with a ceremony of awards.

Certificates will be issued to all student readers who have completed a minimum of twelve books. Special recognition will be given for the most books having been read during the summer. The program is designed to promote reading among youth.

Weather Records

Although there will probably be a large irrigated wheat crop in Randall County this year, grain on dryland acres will be scarce, said Agent John Brazzil.

Terming the irrigated wheat prospects "real good", the agent noted there was probably enough moisture in the ground to finish the dryland wheat crop but that it would be small because of a lack of appreciable moisture earlier in the planting season.

There has been no appreciable damage to the irrigated wheat this year, he continued, explaining that a freeze about the first of May last year killed much of the grain.

Ranges and pastures are greening and cattle feeding is tapering off, Brazzil said.

He said cool soil temperatures were retarding growth of the grass somewhat.

Below are the readings from the Canyon Weather Station on the campus of West Texas State University. These are for the days of May 15, 1968 through May 21, 1968.

gore coordinator of earth sciences research.

Acquisition of the X-ray equipment will allow the introduction of a new agriculture department course in soils analysis; a campus-wide course in X-ray analysis, expansion of a geology course in optical mineralogy, and enrichment of several existing courses, according to Dr. Daugherty.

"Not only will the university be able to enrich its instruction in the sciences on the undergraduate level, but we can also expect to use the equipment for undergraduate research as well," Dr. Daugherty said.

With the X-ray equipment, the structural arrangements of solid materials may be determined, and chemicals, in solid, liquid, or gaseous states, may be analyzed through a non-destructive method, Dr. Daugherty said.

Dr. Daugherty estimates that more than 200 undergraduate students will benefit from the equipment next year, and that the number will increase 10 to 15 per cent annually.

A course in X-ray analysis, offered jointly by the geology and chemistry departments, can also service other university departments, Dr. Daugherty said. The agriculture department, through use of the equipment, may also add the course in soils analysis, and through demonstrations in several courses already being taught, the X-ray techniques will enrich these courses, he said.

passage of a $200,000 bond issue that will allow an expansion of the sewerage treatment plant.

At present, local authorities are pumping an average of 397,000 gallons of waste water per day into the lake. The amended permit would allow pumping of 1,300,000 gallons average per day.

Davis pointed out the move would not, he felt, result in pollution of the creek or the Palo Duro fork of the Red River, where the water flows. He noted there were fish living in a lagoon at the point where the waste water enters the lake.

A report to city officials last fall by City Engineer Bill McMorris of Amarillo indicated the need for expansion of the sewerage treatment plant as the facility was designed for less than the present population.

Terming the present treatment plant "inadequate to meet present needs", McMorris said the facility was designed in many instances for a population of less than 7,000.

Dr. J. Manly Bryan, Canyon's representative on the Amarillo Bi-City-County Health, said his organization's budget for the year had been hiked and that Canyon's increase would total about $4,500 per year.

Last year the city spent about $6,800 and tally for expenditures for the health unit's fiscal year which begins in September will be $11,451.

Dr. Bryan said primary increase was due to salaries and medicare treatment.

Budget for the entire operation, which includes services for four governmental agencies, was $357,000 and will be $421,000 this year.

The date of June 17 at 7:30 p.m. in the City Hall Annex was determined as the time for a public hearing on assessment paving for the summer. A resolution correcting a 1967 tax assessment error was approved. No action on the appointment of about 40 members to various city boards was taken.

east of the city. The lake is located on Tierra Blanca Creek which joins Palo Duro Creek and flows eventually into Lake Tanglewood.

"I object until we find out more about it," declared Commissioner Bill Butler who has a home at Lake Tanglewood. Commissioner B. R. Jones was appointed by the court to look into the matter.

"I don't think it's up to us to take sides," commented Jones. "It seems like it would be up to the individual property owner."

A hearing on the matter will be held in Austin June 18. The court purchased a vacuum cleaner for $208.41 from Time Chemical Company. The machine will be used in the court house.

Commissioners discussed the county's retirement plan. Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen advised the court that once the county participates in the program, as Randall County has, it must remain in the program. County employees enrolled must remain in the program until they leave the county's employment, he said.

Action on a Datamedia Corporation contract was delayed until there is further clarification on a trade-in clause. The corporation, which is selling some 200 punch-card voting machines to the county, had agreed to take 34 mechanical voting machines owned by the county as trade in at $500 each. In the contract submitted, Datamedia suggested that the county seek bids on the machines, allowing 90 to 100 days for the quest.

Commissioners Monday agreed that the court would insist upon Datamedia taking the machines at $500 each. Swisher County Electric Coop was authorized to move a mile of lines and poles in Precinct 3 back 20 feet in order to allow 100 feet of right of way for a road.

The court authorized payment of $708 for extra help in preparation of tax notices by the county clerk's office. Tax Assessor-Collector Mooney was authorized to send a deputy to a workshop in Dallas May 28-31.

Assistant Randall County Criminal District Attorney Harris Hampton was placed on the county payroll at $6,000 a year effective April 15.

he is willing to give his home to the school district.

"I see no way out," he declared, "so set the machinery in motion to take my house."

"I'm bankrupt like most of you here but I admit it."

"The time has come when it has ceased to be beneficial to own property in the United States," Smith said he is also behind on county and state taxes.

Board President Jerry LaGrone said that during the time he has been a member of the board it has never voted to take anyone's home.

"I get a fixed salary," Smith said, "and it's just not enough to cover everything. If anyone here wants to take my paycheck and my bills and try to work it out, he's welcome to try."

Smith said he is employed by a local oil company at $100 a week. He said his wife also works.

School Attorney Elton Cox said that although under the law a home could be sold for taxes, he had never seen it done. He told the board that there were other persons in Canyon delinquent on taxes but still living in their homes.

"When they die, the taxes usually come out of their estate," Cox declared.

LaGrone commended Smith for his honesty and intentions and recommended that the board take no action. None was taken. Both Smith and Sims opposed the bond issue. Just prior to the bond vote a letter over Smith's signature was circulated in Canyon. The letter called for defeat of the bond issue.

Smith said circulation of the letter was financed by Sims and Bailee McCormick.

In other action, the board made plans to visit junior high schools at San Angelo and Amarillo to get ideas on what to incorporate in the new junior high school building here.

A request was made to the city of Canyon for the closing of a street between the present junior high school building and the Music Arts and Agriculture Building. The new junior high will be erected at the back of the present campus.

A meeting was called for June 3 to discuss an offer by Developer Arch Hunsley of a school site in Hunsley Hills.

The board accepted resignations of Juana Jo Essary, Lucille Whitmill, Almada Boehning, Ray C. Wells, Wayne Phemister, Pat Sullivan and Leatrice Garvin.

Teachers hired include Ronald Barnes, Lewis J. Tversky, Gery L. Hassell, Terry G. Milligan, Leslie Lee and Floyd Guinn.

Milligan will be assistant band director.

The board agreed to renew its agreement with PESO and appointed Jacobs to act as representative. Also authorized was participation in Title I and Title II, Elementary and Secondary Education Act and National Defense Education Act.

The superintendent showed some comparative tax rates of neighboring school districts. Canyon taxes on a 40 percent of actual value basis with a rate of $1.38; Hereford, 40 percent with a rate of $2.20; Hale Center, 40 percent with a rate of $2.00 and Lockney, 75 percent with a rate of $1.75 according to Jacobs.

Belcher Is Third In Marathon Race

The 1968 Amarillo-Canyon Run was held Saturday, and records fell by the number in the ten mile footrace. The run was sponsored by the Meteor Track Club of Canyon, and was attended by athletes from Canyon, Amarillo, Claude, Adrian, and Panhandle.

The biggest record setter of all was 16-year-old Pete Hernandez of the North Amarillo Track Club. Hernandez completed the course in one hour and 30.2 seconds, chopping over 21 minutes off the former record set by Jim Beard of Amarillo in 1967.

The first 20 finishers bettered the old record.

The race was divided into two age groups--16 and over, and 15 and under.

Charles Blaylock, a 15-year-old also representing the North Amarillo Track Club, took the younger division in one hour, two minutes and 58.2 seconds. This was over 18 and a half minutes better than the record for the younger age division established by Frank Belcher of the Meteor Track Club in 1967. Blaylock, who attends Palo Duro High, finished fifth overall.

In addition to outstanding times, other records were set for the event. The largest number of entries--35--were on hand for the start, and the largest number of finishers--also 35--completed the course. It marked the first time that all starters completed the run.

The oldest and youngest competitors took part in this year's event, with 26-year-old Jim Caldwell of Amarillo taking 19th in the older division, and 12-year-olds Bill Williams and David Hazlewood of Amarillo taking eighth and eleventh, respectively, in the younger class.

The five girl starters and finishers also were a new high, although they failed to better the girls' record time of one hour, 37 minutes, 15.0 seconds by Lanita Witt of Panhandle in 1967.

This year's top girl was 16-year-old Dorothy Lindsey of Panhandle, who barely edged a determined effort by Canyon's Kim Tucker to win by two yards. Miss Lindsey was timed in one hour, 44 minutes, 43.0 seconds. Other girls who participated were Marion Belcher, Susan Nash, and Lori Rudd, all students at Canyon Junior High. Hernandez, a Palo Duro student, trailed a pack of early pace setters for the first few miles, then increased his pace to pull even with the leaders, who gradually found themselves unable to match him. Adrian's Dale Whitten was the last to fall victim to the tireless stride of Hernandez, after matching him step for step for four miles. The exhausted Whitten then slipped to fourth by the finish.

Other top placers in the older division were Alan Blackerby of the Horns Track Club in second, and third place Russell Gunter, unattached of Amarillo. Blackerby attends Caprock High, while Gunter is a student at Amarillo High.

Runner-up to Blaylock in the younger division was tiny 13-year-old Joe Velasquez, unattached of Amarillo, while Frank Belcher of the Meteor Track Club, after injuring a thigh muscle early in the going, limped home third.

The Meteor Track Club was represented by four runners as Belcher, Frank Mayfield, Tim Fisher, and Ricky Gallop took third, fourth, fifth, and sixth, respectively, in the younger age group. All are students at Canyon Junior High.

No students from Canyon High participated in the run.

The team trophy was won by the North Amarillo Track Club, made up of Palo Duro students, with a low score of 13. This award was based on overall finish of the top three members of a club. The three who figured in the award were Hernandez, Blaylock and Tommy Graham. Second was the 'Horns Track Club, composed of Caprock students, with 22 points. The Meteor Track Club placed third with 47, while the Claude-Hoppers of Claude High School were fourth with 62. Trophies were presented to the top three individuals in each age group, and to the winning team. Each finisher won a medal, with the top girl winning a special medal. Cynthia Gerald of Canyon, a West Texas State junior, presented the awards.

The awards were provided through the courtesy of the Canyon Kiwanis Club, Bucks Sporting Goods of Amarillo, Crow's Grocery, Cooper's Market, Taylor and Son's Food Store, Elmer Sheen's Gulf Station, and the Lotaburger.

Kiwanis 'Law-Order' Essay

THIRD PLACE....BY ROBERT OLSEN

A Nation's Strength
The purpose of law and order is simple, yet great--to protect the rights of the people. All people are guaranteed the rights of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," provided that their freedoms do not infringe upon the rights of others. Law steps in to maintain a wise balance of freedom and restraint, and to insure certain rights for all.

Law and order is the strength of any nation, and in fact has been found essential in any type of organization. All governments, democratic, communistic, and otherwise, recognize that an orderly society is fundamental to their stability. The Greeks, renowned for their democracy, had a well organized system of laws. The Romans, conquerors of the world, stood on a firm set of laws. When Rome fell, she fell because she could no longer rule herself. Law and order is basic to civilization. Hammurabi, who first codified laws for the ancient Babylonians, led his country into a "golden age." He wisely attributed his success to his system of laws, which were, as he succinctly stated, to insure that "the strong shall not injure the weak."

The United States Constitution established a government to prevent injustice, and to protect the liberty and human dignity of the individual. The government was divided into three branches: to make the laws, to enforce the laws, and to judge a person's guilt. The legislative branch was kept close to the people to insure that the law reflected the will of the people. This firm foundation of law and order gave America the strength and stability to become a world power. The orderly nation was able to conquer the frontier, establish an economy, become a military power, and most importantly--rule itself.

Today, America's law and order is being severely tested. Mass rioting and rising crime threaten to undermine the entire nation. Last summer over one hundred cities were burned and looted by unruly mobs. Crime is increasing six times as fast as the population and already costs between twenty and thirty billion dollars a year. These statistics must be changed. Our nation's strength--its law--must be able to cope with the situation or we shall crumble. Much of America's problem stems from the belief, advanced by many educators and politicians, that the citizenry has the right to obey only the laws it chooses. This belief is treacherously false. Its acceptance can only lead to turmoil. If the people can select the laws which they wish to obey, then anarchy exists, and anarchy is only a step away. Each citizen must obey all of the laws his elected representatives enact for him. As Teddy Roosevelt aptly stated, "No man is above the law and no man is below it; nor do we ask any man's permission when we require him to obey it."

The United States must put her domestic situation in order

if she hopes to maintain a position of world leadership. The nations of the world, recognizing the immense economic and military superiority of the United States, naturally look to her for leadership. But their trust begins to falter when they consider the severe internal strife afflicting the nation. America's very strength--her law and order--is beginning to fail and the other nations are naturally questioning if she is fit for world leadership. America must put her own house in order, if she is to remain great. As Vice President Richard Nixon emphasized, "A nation weakened by racial conflict and lawlessness at home cannot meet the challenges of leadership abroad."

Law is primarily a protective institution and not a restrictive one. It imposes only those restrictions necessary to maintain an orderly society, but its effectiveness is essential. History has proven that no nation can exist without it. It forms the very basis of a nation's strength. United States Congressman, W. R. Poage, wisely recognized that, "No one ever makes his rights secure by ignoring the right of his neighbor, and no one increases his own wealth by destroying the property of his neighbors." Law, therefore, seeks to keep every man free from the acts of his neighbors and to guarantee him the right to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

Happy Cleans For Services

Clean-up Day for the Happy Cemetery will be May 28 beginning at 9 a.m.

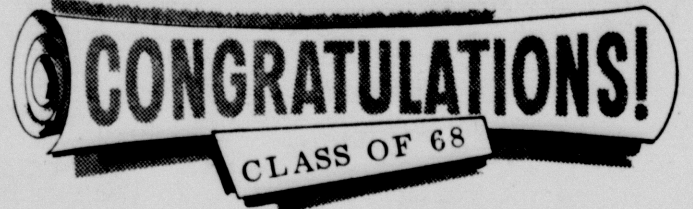

Residents of Happy are asked to provide hoes, rakes, shovels and other tools in an effort to clean up the cemetery for the annual Memorial Day service which will be held May 30 at 10 a.m.

The memorial service will be opened with a welcome by John F. Toles, Happy Cemetery Association president. Cub Scouts of Pack 34 will conduct the flag ceremony and music will be provided by the Happy High School Band, under the direction of Rick Hittinger.

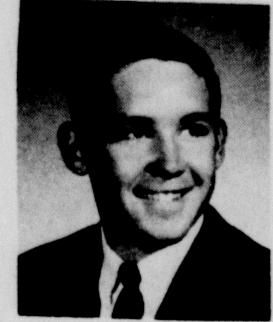

Rev. Irving Looney, pastor of the Happy Baptist Church, will deliver the address. The HHS Choir, directed by Mary Etta Bryan, will perform and the benediction will be by Father Stortz of Holy Name Catholic Church.

Mrs. Terry Petty and sons, Mike, Shannon, Eric and Bruce, are returning home this week from Stavanger, Norway.

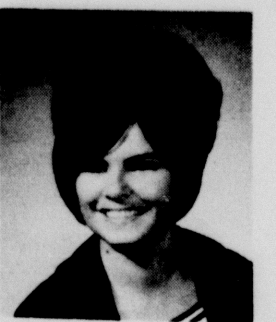

Mrs. Petty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Furlow of Canyon, will join her husband at Norman, Oklahoma in late summer where he will teach at the University of Oklahoma.

Keep up the good work and you will surely go far.

Dick Nixon Wins Poll

If the feeling of the student body at West Texas State University who voted in a recent poll holds true throughout the nation this fall, Richard M. Nixon will be the next president of the United States.

The 378 voters in the Choice 68 poll at WTSU recently picked Nixon over the second runner, Sen. Robert Kennedy. In the final tally, Nixon received 104, followed by Kennedy with 55 and Lyndon B. Johnson with 50 votes.

Total first place votes for the other leading candidates were 42 for Eugene McCarthy and 30 for Ronald Reagan.

WTSU students were also asked to indicate their second and third choices for president on the ballot. Reagan won in second choices with 58 votes, followed by McCarthy with 56, Nixon with 53, and Nelson Rockefeller with 50.

In third choices, McCarthy was first with 80 votes, followed by Reagan and Rockefeller with 46 votes each, Nixon with 40 and George Wallace with 36.

Of the 1,072,830 votes cast by students on over 1,200 campuses across the US, McCarthy was the first choice with 285,988 votes, followed by Kennedy with 213,832 and Nixon third with 197,167 votes.

"WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL"

Our American Heritage

Our country is based on the principles of individualism. This concept is expressed in the Declaration of Independence as "certain inalienable rights" in the form of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." Our Constitution was formulated on the basis that every individual shall have these personal freedoms. To insure that each man fulfill the responsibilities which these rights necessarily imply, our laws have been created.

Our laws are, therefore, realistic rather than idealistic. It is only logical that one man should not be allowed to take what another has worked hard to obtain just because he would like to have it for himself. It is not logical, on the other hand, to force the man who has worked hard to share his profits with someone who is unwilling to provide for himself.

Some people argue that our laws have become so complex that they are completely beyond the comprehension of the ordinary man. They urge us to "simplify, simplify." There is a definite, positive answer to such an argument; always follow Christian guidelines and there will be no question of whether or not one is disobeying an obscure, little known law. To simplify, they would suggest we abolish all present statutes and enact a minimum of basic laws for future use. If it is simplicity they want, let them look to the Communist countries of the world. Theirs is perhaps the briefest of legal platforms ever used by a State Government. You are either right the first time, or dead wrong forever.

Our country has not been so harsh in establishing its laws. The Founding Fathers believed in both the ability and the integrity of the common man to manage his affairs well. It is upon this faith our laws were established and upon this faith our laws continue to function. We are rich in our heritage of laws.

"Forbidden Fruit" Approach

In order to appreciate any given situation, one must first understand it.

That our laws only say "NO" is a very unfortunate misconception which becomes increasingly more prevalent. "Thou shalt not" draws an immediate response of "Oh yeah?" The matter has been settled without ever having been analyzed for its possibilities of benefits to ourselves or to others involved. A common illustration would be the traffic law which dictates that a driver shall bring his vehicle to a complete stop at a stop sign. The teenage driver interprets this law as, "Don't run it," and anything "They" say DON'T to, "Man, do it up as cool as you can." All this has been an automatic response which occurs without considering the elements of risk to oneself which are involved.

This has only been an example to show how the negative or "forbidden fruit" approach to laws has biased the actions of all our citizens. An objective analysis of any law will reveal that it is not a fence which has been deliberately constructed in your path, but that it is a gate through which you may pass without having to worry about snagging your pants.

Our laws are simple practicalities. Common Sense and Good Judgment will never be arrested for violating an ordinance.

Obedience Cannot be Legislated

It is a well known fact that crimes of every sort are steadily increasing in our nation. In fact, they are increasing faster than our population! This is an alarming observation, and one which should be acted upon immediately.

More money is being appropriated to criminal analytical facilities, there are more government bureaus concerned with crime, more law enforcement officers, and more corrective institutions in our country than ever before, yet crimes continue to multiply. What more can be done?

Legislation cannot manipulate obedience; it must stem from personal motivations. We have not found the solution through "bigness." The only recourse is to appeal to the individual.

What Should We Do

Let us take a look at the "before" of the crime problem, or as Ben said, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

The attitude that "every-cop-is-out-to-get-me-and-I-should-do-all-I-can-to-ditch-him" could not have just happened. Nor does such an attitude remain dormant, but it grows malignantly. Where did it begin? To add a current television commercial, "Your children imitate the things you do. Do you respect your laws and law enforcement officers?" There is a moral in there somewhere.

We must keep a clear perspective of what crime really is. A "crime" is not what a murderer commits while you only "borrow" something without asking or engage in a few "shady deals." "Crime like virtue has its degrees; and timid innocence was never known to blossom suddenly into extreme license." (Jean Racine)

The most that can be done to eliminate crime is for each individual to decide what is right, and then to do it. (With total co-operation, the effect would be staggering!) He must approach the subject of laws and crime with an open mind, and after careful study of all facts, must emerge with a well-grounded faith in the legal fundamentals of our country. If he does this, ours shall surely be a land "with liberty and justice for all."

Livable "Walls" Program For HD Agent

"The A B C's of Walls" is the title for a current program being presented by home demonstration agent, Becky Hall, for the county's home demonstration clubs.

Mrs. Hall describes her program as "the elementary steps in selection and care of wall coverings". She said that several points should be considered in selecting a good finish for a wall.

"Decide if the wall is to serve as a complementary background for displaying furniture and accessories or if the wall should minimize the effect which the furniture has on the room," she said.

"Proper wall treatment can make a room interesting, gaudy, or dreary," stated Mrs. Hall. "Make the wall pleasant to look at itself—it shouldn't have a tiring design or too much of a shiny effect but should be light enough to make light when desired."

"Some wall finishes improve the lines of furniture by minimizing the effect of an old overstuffed sofa or showing off the tweed of a chair by accents in the design and texture of the paper used on the wall."

"Important points to consider when refinishing a wall is the cost for materials, the care it will need and the length of service which may be expected," said Mrs. Hall.

"When purchasing paint, wallpaper, paneling etc., while on sale it should be remembered to make the purchase adequate to cover the desired area—as sale items may not be in stock for later matching and adding to."

A recent cost estimate release for wall materials, minus labor, covering 500 square feet of wall space shows that the new fabric backed vinyl wall coverings will range from $65-

$100, the vinyl coated paper will be from $10 to $45, ordinary wallpaper will cost about $7.50 while paint may be applied for $3 to $8, according to Mrs. Hall.

In paint, Mrs. Hall described the difference between latex and alkyd. Latex or water base paints are almost all washable and easy to apply for the beginners while the alkyd or oil base paint is used more for wood and paneling. No matter which type is purchased, she said, the important thing to remember before buying is to inspect and read the labels questioning the salesman as to the painting results for particular types of wall. She cautioned that sub-level walls (or basements) require special treatment and types of finishes.

She said that "walls themselves come in all types of materials, including brick, cement block and gypsum board (commonly known by the brand name of Sheetrock) and a new idea is the pre-finished wood paneling which is usually pre-measured for average height ceilings and ready to install."

"Ceramic tiles have been widely used on walls and counter tops for the kitchen, laundry and bath areas for many years," said Mrs. Hall. "Among new innovations for wall coverings are cork block, copper tile, murals, painted paneling, foam backed vinyl, burlap, oak floor squares, mirror tiles, foil vinyl with backing, and even indoor-outdoor carpet tiles."

"Area accents may be achieved with bamboo, felt squares, and a new fiberglass treated to create a stone effect," Mrs. Hall stated.

"Wallpaper, although not new to the wall finish line, has a new prepested or adhesive backing which is easy for most do-it-yourselfers," said Mrs. Hall.

"In buying wallpaper," said the agent, "it is wise to remember that patterns often look larger in the book. Bold patterns may detract, too much glitter and shine may give a gaudy effect, and colors selected may either brighten or darken the room."

"Natural looking patterns may give an effect to the room that one tires of readily. An abstract adaptation may be enjoyed longer. In buying paper with large designs it is wise to use a subdued object because with most wallpapers and coverings it would not be economical to change the decor of the wall in a few months just because you were tired of looking at cherries, daisies or whatever the design is. It would be more advisable to use a wall covering which could be changed with the shift of wall accessories such as lamps, plaques etc."

"In an area which is designed for rest (such as the bedroom, study or reading area) it would be recommended to use soft colors and related designs to achieve the optimum of rest because the bold and flamboyant wall covering would tend to lead to activity."

"Murals and wallpaper borders are becoming more common for accent areas such as high ceilings, as a headboard accent to a bed, or for a favorite entry hall or study cove," she said. "Some homeowners prefer a coordinated theme throughout the home from room-to-room while others may wish that each room stand on its own merit by having contrasting effects for adjoining rooms."

"No matter what type wall covering you select," concluded Mrs. Hall. "It is wise and economical to select a pattern, design and texture which may be cleaned easily and will not become tiresome as the days and weeks progress forward."

GENERIC DRUGS ARE OFTEN TOO CHEAP

Before this "Miracle Drug Age," most prescription drugs were generic, which means that they can be manufactured by any supplier. Different makes all, as a rule, have the same name.

But they accomplished less. We then had no complicated hormones, antibiotics, or today's expensive researched drugs. The pharmaceutical firms that discover new drugs, brand them with their exclusive name and physicians prescribe that name on their prescriptions. We have no choice. We must dispense that exact brand. Sometimes other suppliers can make these new drugs and use their common or generic name. Only if we are absolutely certain a generic product equals the original, when a physician prescribes by the generic name we will dispense the lower priced medicine.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

Kiwanis 'Law-Order' Essay

pulsive, sometimes irrational demand for change.

Perhaps the means by which the youth are securing their ends is questionable, but it must be remembered that children are raised in the image of their parent's concepts and beliefs. Indeed, it has been the stagnation of the parental public that has encouraged riots. Seeing the first sit-down and walk-out strikes appeased and pampered, the youth like spoiled children, turned to rioting as the means to secure their end. Even worse, they have succeeded.

Actually no language of the law protects rioters, only a public too cowardly to enforce the law or perhaps too stagnant to realize that a civilized society does not have to tolerate lawlessness. There is no reason for riots classified as "peaceable demonstrations" to be tolerated. There are no "peaceable demonstrations." They are intended to force direct action outside the law. To be termed "peaceable," action can be taken only through the law. Nor can riots be termed "civil disobedience." The word "civil" means "nonpolitical." No riot or demonstration in the United States can be separated from an ultimate political goal. Riots are the willful breaking of the law and therefore can be called only "criminal disobedience." Finally, riots cannot hide behind the first amendment which states:

"Congress shall make no law . . . abridging . . . the right of the people to assemble to petition the government for a redress of grievances."

Often we Americans become so involved with the idea of freedom that we forget that our privileges also mean responsibility. Riots disturb other's peace and infringe upon their rights. Toleration of riots means ignoring our responsibility and endangering our freedom.

If lack of discipline by the parental public is not adequate to explain the 8% rise in juvenile delinquency and particularly the rise in the number of youth participating in riots, another factor can be examined. Though the increase in population accounts for part of the rise, a more alarming cause is the confusing muddle of double talk which is the mark of our political structure. It is little wonder that enthusiastic youth prefer immediate action over ambiguous and deceptive double talk.

For example, Webster defines a "leftist" as a person who is a radical, and a "rightist" as one who is conservative or reactionary. Today, those words have been twisted to denote exactly opposite meanings. "Equality," today is interpreted as the requirement of every man to accept every other man as a social equal. All men are equal in America. That is, all men are insured by the government's various welfare programs of permanent economic equality. More frequently, this is defined not as democracy, but as communism, a social organization in which all goods are held in common so that all men are economically equal. Aren't we now straying from the principle on which the United States was founded? Our ancestor's purpose in creating a United States of America was to encourage free enterprise and present all people with the opportunity to make themselves economically unequal if they so desired. Free enterprise was never intended to be a leveler of men. Are the advocates of this type of equality really conscious that they are spewing forth purely ludicrous double talk? If so, the word "equality" has been defaced beyond description.

It is up to the public, each individual, to correct these faults. James Symington stated in the February 29, 1968 issue of the "Reporter," "Strong family ties seem to offer one of the best assurances against delinquency in the young." Notice the rarity of Jewish delinquents. The father is the undisputed head of the household in the Jewish family. Boys of thirteen take the responsibilities and are disciplined as grown men.

Within a few years, one-half the population of the United States will be under twenty-five years of age. With riots spreading and juvenile delinquency rising, some "undisputed head of the household" must enforce the laws.

The old adage "crime does not pay" is almost ludicrous today. The Supreme Court has made itself the protector of the criminal instead of the protector of society. President Johnson, while standing with one foot on a platform of strict law enforcement, vetoed a new law enforcement bill last December. It provided for suspects to be held four hours for questioning and six hours after arrest. He even denounced the bill for "abridging the rights of an individual."

The United States has no right to turn the cheek of its citizens. But it is the citizens who must demand a change, and this change must begin within themselves. Though honesty, The Ten Commandments, and virtue are all old-fashioned, they are the key to change... a change which means a return to law and order in the United States. Crime does not pay only if we do not let it.
